Payment of Fees

Tuition and Fees for the semester are due by the published due dates established in the Academic Calendar or at the time of registration unless prior arrangements have been made through the Business or Financial Aid Office. The Board of Trustees establishes the tuition and fee rates at Belmont College. Resident, Out-of-State, and International Student fees are subject to change pending Board action.

Description of Charges and Fees

Instructional Fee (Tuition Per Credit Hour)

A student is charged in-state fees if he/she resides in the state of Ohio, or in Hancock, Brooke, Ohio, Marshall, or Wetzel County of West Virginia.

General Fee (Per Credit Hour)

Associated with student support services such as those provided in Advising, Student Success Center and Learning Commons.

Technology Fee (Per Credit Hour)

This fee helps to defray costs to maintain technology infrastructure and to expand technology enhanced learning such as licensing, upgrading and web access.

Career Services Fee (Per Credit Hour)

Associated with maintaining and developing career services functions that are vital to student and workforce success, as well as to ensure these services are available in future academic terms.

Auxiliary Fee (Per Credit Hour for enrollment in 4 or more credit hours)

Associated with providing a common platform to enhance instruction and to access digital educational resources to prepare graduates for technology-driven careers, as well as offering textbooks at a reduced cost through the use of digital materials.

Student Life Fee (Per Semester)

Each semester, a student life fee is added to the student's total tuition and fees. These funds help support the many activities offered to Belmont students throughout the academic year.

Course and Lab Fees (Per Course, if Applicable)

Course fees are assessed to cover the cost of consumable materials, equipment maintenance, supplies, liability insurance, and other costs associated with certain courses. These fees are charged to the student at the time of registration. Not all courses involve course fees. Course fees are subject to change.
